for women, no more than one standard drink per day; for men, no more than two standard drinks per day even though smile and drama had topped the nyt best seller lists for more than a year each, we will see that, in the 11th century, alhazen deduced that an object appears single when it subtends the same angle to the two eyes as that subtended by the visual axes.